CARD.—TO THE CITIZENS OF CONNECTI

OUT—During the past Winter, the unapproachable per formances at NiBLO'S GARDENS. New-York, have attracted thousands from the Land of Steady Habits, who have universally gone away delighted, not only with the supero performances given by the various members of the most extensive and talented thouse ever combined in the write, but castled from met a positive agreement to produce the Great Greats, with all its expensive and extended apportenances, in the different prominent towns of the State of Connecticut. I am now not only ready to accede to the wishes so expressed but to do more, much more, having this day made an arrangement with Mr. P. T. Barneim, to add to the whole trungs of Equestrian and other Gelebrites, his great ME-NAGERIE, of Wild Beasts, under the control of that wonderful trapper and popular American hander, "Old Greaty Adams," and an assurance is bereby conveyed to the people that the whole of these immense performances and extraordicary curiosities will positively be exhibited at one time, and under one pavilion, and for one price of admission, so that while the senses are entrained with the grace and elegance of ZOYARA, sardied and delighted by the during and style of ROBINSON, held captive by the trilling and wonderful feats of he immortal HANLONS, amuse d by the condustities of JUE PENTLAND, the Contigues of the splensid even by the willy Indian linuself. One great feature of this splensid Exhibition will be fromined upon the bills will be performed, as I expect that the patronsel i receive from the public hereafter will be based upon the statistical of give upon this tour.

TO MY FELLOW-CITIZENS OF CONNECTICUT.

TO MY FELLOW-CITIZENS OF CONNECTICUT.

As will be seen by the above Card from J. M. Nizon, esq., his Mamin th Circus, including a Star Troupe which has no equi in America or in Earlog, is about to traverse the State of Connecticut. This Colossal Equestrian Company embraces talent to be found nowhere cles in the world, and the expenses eaceed these of any two Circuses in the United States. With however, a recklessness of lavish expenditure peculiar to himself, Mr. Nixon has also engaged "Old Grazzer Adams," the great Call togratan Hunter and his Grazzer Erans, all experience and tamed by himself—the result of which is an exhibition of Savage Baselso Grazzer Brans—Larghino Grazzer Brans—Cays which Truss Songraszer on the house that he Evertually But Sprast! When it is added that all of these wonderful and delightful attractions are combined, and calibled at a price to low as to seem absurd, it is needless to say that this immense concentration of democratic is at once the most estounding and extensive, as well as the Cherarrey Exhibition ever winessed in any country, and as such I confidently recommend it to the whole public.
